10 BRILLIANT FACTS ABOUT The Amazing GloFish®

1. They are not injected, painted, or dyed and they inherit their lifelong color from their parents.

2. GloFish® are tropical freshwater fish, require the same care, and can be added to any community aquarium.

3. GloFish® absorb light and then re-emit it, so their unique fluorescent colors will appear brighter and more vibrant as the amount of light is increased.

4. GloFish® Tetras and Barbs are a medium-bodied fish and the Danios are a small-bodied fish. All three species grow to a maximum length of about 2.5".

5. GloFish® were originally bred to help detect environmental pollutants.

6. GloFish® have been a proud supporter of global access to clean water since its inception. The GloFish® Clean Water Initiative helps thousands of children and their families throughout the world by repairing and creating sustainable wall systems.

7. Fluorescent fish are common... In fact, a recent study partially funded by the American Museum of Natural History found more than 180 species of fish that are naturally fluorescent under blue light.

8. Fluorescent fish are common... In fact, a recent study partially funded by the American Museum of Natural History found more than 180 species of fish that are naturally fluorescent under blue light.

9. GloFish® lights are specially designed to optimize the fluorescent properties of GloFish® and are highly recommended for the best GloFish® experience.

10. GloFish® first became available to US consumers in late 2003. In 2013, Tetra launched an exclusive line of GloFish® products.

© 2016 Spectrum Brands, Inc. 3001 Commerce St., Blacksburg, VA 24060 1-800-526-0650 www.tetra-fish.com